The Baptist church will in the near future build Sunday school accommodations to the church. The addition will be in the form of a long building crossing the rear of the present house, making a "T" shaped structure. The Sunday school annex will likely contain six rooms. Under the leadership of the Rev. B. S. Funderburg this church has always been a power for good in the community, and is doing more and better work each year.

Quite a good deal of excitement was caused yesterday morning among the Order of the Sons of Rest when Clarence Cate was caught digging a hole in front of the Wingate Jewelry Co. for the purpose of putting a post up for the big reduction sale display. The order went into executive session at once and Clarence is now under suspended sentence with the definite promise that he will not engage in any work for the remainder of 1916.

Get Walk-Overs and all other kinds of shoes at Odom Bros. Co. at the old prices.

First Lieut. W. A. Mulloy, Company I, 1st S. C. Regt., Nat. Guards, U. S. A., of Cheraw, recently from the Mexican border, was in town yesterday visiting relatives and friends. That Mr. Mulloy gave a good account of himself in the army is evident from the stories that are heard of his popularity with the men and with your Uncle Samuel, for that matter, as it is said that Mr. Mulloy was offered a First Lieutenancy in the Regular army.

Will pay highest market price for your hides. The City Market.

Senator G. K. Laney attended a meeting of the Fire Insurance Commissioners in Columbia on Tuesday. There was also a meeting on that day of the board having charge of the old Confederate Home, of which board Mr. Laney is a member. He reports satisfactory progress being made in the undertakings of the Insurance Board. It is expected that many of the fire insurance companies that withdrew will be induced to return to the State, with the State retaining supervisory powers as to the rates.

The finest mixed pickle you ever tasted—at the A. F. Davis Market.

Mr. A. W. McCall, who has been engaged in the jewelry business and as manager of the Amus-U Theatre in Chesterfield for about three years, we understand will soon leave our town to engage in the jewelry business in a larger town. During his stay here Mr. McCall has made many friends who will deeply regret his leaving. Mr. McCall is a good jeweler and gave Chesterfield the best service as a show manager that she has ever had. In his going, Chesterfield loses a good citizen.

Seeded Raisins, Currants, Citron and Nuts, at The City Market.

Buy Maxwell House Coffee, good to the last drop. Get it at Odom Bros. Company.

Mr. Thomas H. Jenkins, one of the Chesterfield county boys to volunteer for service on the Mexican border, who got in trouble while in Columbia, is now at Fort Moultrie, near Charleston, awaiting the action of the War Department on his trial. It will be remembered that Mr. Jenkins struck an officer with his gun while on trial. He was brought to trial while the boys were on the border. The trial was held by the officers of an Illinois Regiment, but the 1st S. C. furnished the best legal talent it possessed for the defense of Mr. Jenkins. So far as can be learned no definite disposition of the case has been made. Mr. Jenkins will be remembered by Chesterfieldians as one of the most enthusiastic boys to join the expedition and much sorrow is expressed at the plight in which he now finds himself.

Noticing that the roof of the bank building was giving way under the strain of the explosions of melody, Director Smythe Henderson, of the Chesterfield Band, has now removed his musicians to the auditorium of the Court House. When this roof shows signs of bulging the twenty horns, etc. will be brought into the open and the sky will be the limit.

All of the town Sunday schools have made arrangements to see that each pupil gets a present of some kind on the Christmas trees which will be given in the following order: That of the Baptist Sunday school, first, coming on Saturday night; the Methodist being on Monday night and the Presbyterian's on Tuesday night. Chesterfield has three of the best Sunday school superintendents in the county, and that is saying a good deal, as there are some good ones in our neighboring towns and in the surrounding country.

If you want a real first-class article in green coffee, try Odom Bros. Co.

A few more Christmas presents are yet to be found at L. A. Campbell's Hardware store—checkboards, toys, etc.

The pastor, the Rev. J. L. Tyler, will preach at St. Paul next Sunday at 11 a.m. and at 7 p.m. The morning service will be devoted to the children. Every child in the community is invited to this service. Older persons are also urged to attend. At night the subject will be, "Forces for and Forces Against Temperance."

MRS. C. L. HUNLEY ENTERTAINS

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. L. Hunley entertained a large number of friends at a Rook party. The pretty cottage of the hostess lent itself beautifully to the decorations of holly and pot plants, giving a festive appearance to the scene.

Delicious hot chocolate and cake, fruit and nuts were served at the conclusion of the games. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. R. E. Hanna and Miss Sallie Lucas.

CORRESPONDENCE

BETHEL

Measles are raging throughout our community now.

Mr. John Davis, the Misses Ola and May Davis, spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. J. A. Davis.

Mrs. Coit Baker is very sick at this writing, but we hope for her a speedy recovery.

School is progressing nicely at Bay Springs now under the supervision of Miss Verdie Davis, principal, Miss Bertie Douglass assistant.

There is to be a Christmas tree at Bethel Wednesday after Christmas, December 27th. Also the Sunday school will render a short Christmas program, beginning at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. An invitation is extended to all.

The baby of Mr. L. R. Wilks was badly burned last Saturday morning when the little fellow stumbled and fell into the fire.

We notice here a while back the Vaughn School correspondent was hoping that the high boots and short skirts and the boll weevil would never strike them, but surely the high boots and short skirts must have struck that section by now.

Sunday school at Bethel every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, also preaching the fourth Sunday evening at 4 o'clock.

A merry Christmas and a happy New Year to the editor and all.

Don't buy your goods until you visit our store. We will save you money. The City Market.

CHESTERFIELD, ROUTE 4

Health in this community is not so very good at the present.

Oh such a grand time as is being expected at the Christmas tree at White Oak School House.

Messrs. Spoferd and Duncan Oliver have moved into our community and we wish them much success.

Messrs. Guss Clanton and Ervin Odom were callers at the home of Mr. Wesley Hancock last Sunday afternoon.

On noting the frequent Sunday visits of certain young men at certain homes in the community we are constrained to remark oh, what a blessing to be going some.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan visited on this route Sunday.

G. N. Clanton was in the Palmetto section Sunday.

Mr. J. H. Dalnypole and Mr. James Thomas made a business trip to Charlotte, N. C., Friday.

Miss Janine Smith is spending a few days at G. N. Clanton's.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther B. Clanton of Andalusia, Ala., are expected home to spend the holidays with homefolks.

Ask for a "Cake like mother used to bake" at A. F. Davis' Market and get one of those delicious cakes for 10 cents, made by the Stone Co., of Atlanta, Ga.

Miss Cathleen Sellers spent a part of the week with Mrs. W. J. Hinson, of the Teal's Mill section.

Master Maxie Rivers, of Ruby, spent a part of last week here visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Jordan, of Wexford, was visiting here a part of last week.

Mr. W. B. Duncan spent Sunday in McFarlan with his son-in-law, Mr. Thomas Sings. Mr. and Mrs. Sings left Sunday afternoon for Virginia, where they will make their future home.

Master Jack Gardner, of the Teal's Mill section, is quite sick at this writing, but we hope for him a speedy recovery. We wish the Editor a happy Christmas.

Who will be NEXT?

The Rush Is On. People Are Buying Cars every day. Will you be next?

Gloom and an Auto ride can't live together. Did you ever see a disgruntled countenance in a motor party? Come in for your turn and join the throng of happy and contented ones.

LUCKISVILLE

We are having regular Christmas weather these days.

Mr. J. W. Winburn was very badly hurt last week while cutting in Mr. O. C. Bowman's new ground. A tree cut by his son fell on him making a very ugly gash on his head, but he is recovering nicely.

School children are very busy these days getting ready for the Christmas tree. They are going to have recitations and a fine time is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbie and sister Miss Annie Braddock, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winburn last Sunday evening.

Glad to report Mr. P. E. Chapman's little baby is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Sumner visited the latter's father, Mr. C. L. King, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Will Winburn killed a hog last week weighing 340 pounds.

Call on us for your fruits and candies for Xmas. The City Market.

Well, Christmas is almost here. Wonder if old Santa Claus will forget to visit us good Shiloh folks.

Mr. Preston Hurst was the guest of Miss Minnie Smith Sunday evening.

Mr. Bryan Odom visited Miss Gussie Burch Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Pate spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Sellers.

CHARMING CHERAW PLANS FOR NEW ENTERPRISES.

Cheraw, Dec. 14—A largely attended and inspiring meeting of the Cheraw Board of Trade was held in the council chamber Tuesday night. This was the annual meeting, and standing committees made reports and officers were elected for the ensuing year.

The ice factory was reported as practically an assured thing, as the company that is to put it up waited on an analysis of the town's water. This has now been furnished, and is satisfactory; and a representative of the company will be here in a few days.

The street committee, L. A. Meiklejohn, chairman, has been in correspondence with Mr. Gilbert C. White, an expert engineer of North Carolina, in regard to paving Main street with bitulithic paving. Interesting figures as to cost were produced, which put everybody in the notion of having the work done.

The idea of making the river bridge a toll bridge has been abandoned, as it was found that the contract which the county made with the town stipulates that no toll shall be collected for thirty years.

An estimate of nine hundred and sixty-five dollars was made on repairing and painting the old town hall. The board endorsed the proposition, and requested the town council to have the work done.

The subject of a cotton mill was the feature of the evening. Mr. T. S. Evans, of the Seaboard Railroad's industrial agent, and Mr. B. S. Meeks, the Coast Line's travelling freight agent, were here and gave much valuable information. The promoters are negotiating with a capable man as superintendent. Enough money has been secured, but the details are not yet in shape.

The election of officers resulted in the re-election of J. M. Long as president; L. A. Meiklejohn, vice-president; J. H. Wannamaker, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Long made a splendid address on resuming his seat for another year. Refreshments, coffee and grape juice were served.

This is the oldest board of trade in continuous service in the State, and has done for Cheraw a vast amount of good.
